This sheet will be completed only when three directors are requested. In accordance with current legislation, this matter must be supported by means of a deed which, with the agreement of the Academic Commission, must be sent to the School of Doctoral Studies, together with the appointment forms for the thesis directors. (Art. 12 of R.D. 99/2011 and Art. 1 of Title I of the REGULATION ON DOCTORAL THESES* (Resolution of the University Governance Council, dated 20 December 2013).

Article I, point 4 of Title I in said Regulation:

\"Exceptionally, the Doctoral Commission may authorise that a thesis can be run by three directors, if its formulation supports this. The grounds, which must be sent to the administrative section of the School of Doctoral Studies with the agreement of the Academic Commission, make reference to the need for academic co-direction and should be signed by the three directors. Furthermore, at least one of the following requirements must be met: a) the three directors may not belong to the same University, Research Institute or Research Centre; b) the three may not belong to the same field of knowledge".*

Procedure:

A copy will be sent to the doctoral candidate, another to the Thesis Directors and a third to the Director of the School of Doctoral Studies; the original is filed in the programme's head office:
